The history of commemoration day traces back to October 21, 1959, when a police party of the Indian police force was deployed to defend national frontiers in the Ladakh region. The same was attacked by Chinese troops hidden by forming ambush in hills and 10 CRPF jawans were killed. Since then, this day is celebrated as Martyrdom Day at Central Police Organizations and Police Forces in remembrance of countless sacrifice of martyr companions.

Tribute to 6 Martyrs of Chandigarh Police

Chandigarh Police since its inception in the year 1966, is being striving very hard to provide an efficient, law abiding and responsive law enforcement machinery. In this attempt our 06 fellow policemen Insp. Jagjit Singh, Insp. Sucha Singh, SI Amarjit Singh, ASI Amarjit Singh, ASI Lalu Ram and ASI Amin Chand have laid down their lives while discharging their duties.

Last year Chandigarh Police had pioneered the initiative by showcasing the supreme sacrifice and priceless contribution of Martyrs by organizing ceremonies at native villages of 6 martyrs of Chandigarh Police. This year also Chandigarh Police organized ceremonies at 5 districts of Punjab & 01 of Himachal Pradesh to commemorate the supreme sacrifice made by Martyrs of Chandigarh Police. The functions were held at the schools/colleges in the native home towns of martyrs in which these valiant men studied.

DSP's of UT, Chandigarh, paid humble tribute to the six martyrs in the presence of family members of the martyrs, staff and students of the respective schools/colleges and other prominent personalities. DSP's also addressed the gathering at these functions. Remembering the brave souls on the occasion Chandigarh Police highlighted the sacrifice made by the slain martyrs in the line of duty:

Late Sh. Jagjit Singh, Inspector joined Chandigarh Police as ASI on May 6, 1972. While posted as SHO/PS-39, on 17 July, 1988, he led a raid at a residence in sector-45, where some terrorists, armed with sophisticated weapons, were taking shelter. Exhibiting exemplary courage and leadership, he broke open the door and rushed inside the house. In this encounter three terrorists were killed. Insp. Jagjit Singh also received fatal bullet injuries and was martyred on the spot.

Late Sh. Sucha Singh, Inspector joined Chandigarh Police as Constable on April 30, 1976. While posted in the traffic wing of the Chandigarh Police, he was on the night checking duty in the area of sub-division central on the night intervening of June 8/9, 2013. During checking he questioned one suspicious couple sitting near the district court, sector-17, Chandigarh. During the process, the accused stabbed him multiple times due to which he was martyred. Inspector Sucha Singh sacrificed his life valiantly so that others could live safely.

Sh. Amarjit Singh, SI joined Punjab Police as Constable on 25.05.1973 and joined Chandigarh Police on deputation. On February 25, 1992, SI Amarjit Singh along with other police officials was escorting under trial terrorists to PGI, Chandigarh for their treatment, some unidentified attacked the police party. Late SI Amarjit Singh bravely fought the terrorist till he martyr.

Late Sh. Amarjit Singh, ASI joined Chandigarh Police on July 26, 1976. On December 8, 1989, while he was posted in the Police Post-36, he was ambushed and martyred on the patrolling duty near village Kajheri by two terrorists riding a motorcycle.

Late Sh. Lalu Ram, ASI joined as a constable in Punjab Police on 29 June, 1976 and joined Chandigarh Police on deputation on 30 May, 1978. On August 29, 1991, while he was posted as PSO to SSP/Chandigarh, some terrorists laid an explosive trap which blasted the SSP's car. ASI Lalu Ram was martyred on the spot.

Late Sh. Amin Chand, ASI joined the Chandigarh Police as constable on June 4th, 1981. He was martyred on August 29, 1991 in a bomb blast by some terrorists, while he was posted as driver with then SSP, Sh. SS Saini.

The scientific benefits of Yoga were enlightened at the function and a live demonstration of Yoga protocol by two qualified trainers was given by showing some important steps of Yoga protocol for de-addiction. An inspiring speech was given by none other than Padamshree Dr. H.R. Nagendra, founder of SVYASA world's largest Yoga University and an architect of Yoga program in the Country. He is advising Govt. of India on various innovative and transformational evidence based Yoga programs (like Niyantriti Madhumeh Bharat) ranging from UN's International Day of Yoga Adoption and accreditation to its incorporation in Schools, Colleges, academic Institutes. SVYASA is the recognized centre for Inter University Yoga Research with NAC A++ certification.

Today, Memorandum of Undertaking was signed between Chandigarh Police & Panjab University for the advancement of Yoga protocol and better Yoga research and a letter of intent between Chandigarh Police and SVYASA (University of Bangalore).

MOU between Chandigarh Police and Panjab University

This MOU will enable exchange of knowledge, expertise in areas of cyber security, forensics and psychology application in order to configure new recruitment procedures as per fast changing requirements. It will also open new avenues for police personnel to undertake short courses or enrol into degree programs of Panjab University besides sharing resources of two organizations.

During the speech, DGP/Chandigarh emphasized that "Today's program not only provides an opportunity to understand the science behind Yoga but to also witness a Yoga protocol of de-addiction. We also plan to examine the effect of common Yoga protocol, plasticized on International Day of Yoga, each year on various biomarkers of personality development of our recruits before they are ready for their duties in Chandigarh Police. I hope the joint research provides the necessary substrate for more projects to follow beneficial for Chandigarh as well as for training regime of new recruit in advancing as culture of collaboration between academic institutes and Police Organizations.

This unique move will definitely cement the brotherhood relationships and communal harmony among the communities, especially in Muslims, not only in Chandigarh but in the whole country.

The religious leaders of Muslim Community also pay their respect to the move of the Chandigarh Police and presented a Bouquet to the Sh. Sanjay Baniwal, IPS, DGP Chandigarh, Sh. Om Vir Singh, IPS, DIG Chandigarh and Sh. Ram Gopal DSP/CID on the occasion as a token of affection.

The Muslim religious leaders have decided that no one will come to the Masjid for offering Namaj on EID i.e on 25.05.2020 rather they have to offer their Namaj at their homes only, which is a welcome step in fight together against the pandemic COVID-19. Kari Shamsher also said that it is the first time after the Independence that the Muslim Community is not coming in Masjids to offer Namaj on the eve of EID, which is an example in the interest of our Country and humanity because pandemic worldwide Corona virus does not recognised any religion, caste, colour, race. Therefore, we are all together in fight against dreaded COVID-19 and not to visit Masjid on the eve of EID. In order to ensure it Molanas of the Masjids will also give a message during Ajaan to all the members of Muslim community to offer Namaj at their Homes only and not to visit Masjids on the eve of EID.
