The proceedings of the Sampark Sabha were started by DIGP, UT Chandigarh with a welcome address. He further added in his address that Sampark Sabha was held after a long time due to law & order arrangements and festival seasons. The Sampark Sabha was held to facilitate interaction between the police personnel and DGP/UT, Chandigarh. DIGP/UT also informed regarding various welfare initiatives of Chandigarh Police undertaken recently:

- Promotion – There is stagnation in promotion cases of police personnel at different ranks due to court cases and other problems. In this regard, we had sent a proposal to Chandigarh Administration to adopt the promotion criteria of Punjab Police i.e. 16-24-30 on seniority basis and the same has been accepted by the Chandigarh Administration. We have implemented the same for Constables who have completed 16 years of service have been promoted. Process for officers who have completed 24 & 30 years is also underway.
- Retirement benefits/gratuity benefits- Timely disbursement of retirement benefits to retiring police officers i.e. leave encashment is provided on the last day and other benefits like gratuity, GPF and pension etc are granted according to time line as per AG/Punjab (Govt. of India) i.e. 3 months time on completing all relevant formalities as per rules.
