

Press Release
11.02.2013

Today, Sh. R. P. Upadhyaya, IPS, IGP/UT met with the students of SGGGS College (both men & women) and also had an interaction session with the students at Assembly Hall, SGGGS College, Sector 26, Chandigarh. Sh. Naunihal Singh, IPS, SSP/Chd, DSP/East, DSP/communication & PCR, and Principals Smt. Charanjit Kaur Sohi, Sh. Harjit Singh Sohi and associates of BIG FM 92.7 were also present at the function.

Dr. Charanjeet Kaur Sohi, Principal delivered welcome speech to Sh. R. P. Upadhyaya, IPS, IGP/UT and appraised the initiatives which have been taken by Chandigarh Police for the security & safety of women.

Sh. R. P. Upadhyaya, IPS, IGP/UT paid thanks to the Principals of colleges and august gathering of students to get together. He assured that the Chandigarh Police is committed to making the city a safe place especially for women. IGP/UT told that anyone can approach Chandigarh Police at any time. The time has been changed and the girls are empowering in India. At this stage, the time is to change the mind set of both sexes. He wants to convey the message to the youth that enjoy life without causing any inconvenience and hindrance. Students especially boys should not put unnecessary burden and they should be wake up for healthy mental environment.

He further told that women should not tolerate any nuisance. It must be complained so that concrete and effective steps may be taken. With the prevention, we can improve the detection of crime. He told that it is your duty to complaint without having fear mind. Everyone has right to feel safe and it will happen with the co-operation of public. Your good suggestions and queries will produce guidelines. Chandigarh Police will start a PCR on experimental basis which consist all women (Lady Police); if successful then project will be carried on. At last IGP/UT answered the queries of students and heard their suggestions.

Sh. Naunihal Singh, IPS, SSP/Chandigarh told that the initiative actions like reporting by girls and assurance for conceal their identity by Police became fruitful result which increased the number of registered cases and arrest of culprits as well.

At last representative from BIG FM 92.7 paid thanks to Sh. R. P. Upadhyaya, IPS, IGP/UT and other senior officers and all students.

Issued by Chandigarh Police