

Press Release
21.6.2013

Chandigarh Traffic Police has now launched a novel initiative to ensure that no citizen is harassed by any auto/taxi driver in an illegal manner. Under the scheme, if any auto/taxi driver, etc. either refuses to take a citizen to a particular destination or overcharges from any citizen, then the citizen can contact the Chandigarh Traffic Police Helpline No. 1073. A traffic police officer shall rush to the spot and take appropriate legal action in the matter.

Chandigarh Traffic Police appeals to the citizens of the city, if any auto/taxi driver, etc. either refuses to take a citizen to a particular destination or overcharges from any citizen, then kindly contact on the abovementioned helpline number.

It is requested that, in public interest, wide publicity be kindly be given to this website for the benefit of the citizens.
