

PRESS RELEASE
29.08.2015

Today, Sh. Vijay Kumar Dev, IAS, Adviser to the Administrator, UT Chandigarh inaugurated the Women Police Station in Chandigarh at Home Guard Building, Sector – 17, Chandigarh. Sh. Maninder Singh, IAS, Chairman, Chandigarh Housing Board, UT, Sh. R.P. Upadhyaya, IPS, Inspector General of Police, UT, Chandigarh, Sh. A.S. Cheema, IPS, DIG/UT, Dr. Sukhchain Singh Gill, IPS, SSP/UT and other senior officers and Inspectors of Police Department and general public were also present on this occasion. It was much awaited requirement to have a Women Police Station in the city which has been fulfilled on the auspicious occasion of Raksha Bandhan. This police station will registered and investigate the crime related to women and children. This Police Station would be working with extended field of work covering Anti Human Trafficking Unit, Rape Crisis Intervention Centre and Scheduled Caste/Scheduled Tribes Cell.

Insp. Harjit Kaur has been posted as SHO of this Women Police Station and sufficient staff has been posted in this police station.

The following are the telephone numbers of the Police Station:

DSP W&CSU	:	8288019955, 0172 - 2723444, 2700423
SHO Harjit Kaur	:	7087239005
Women Helpline	:	0172 - 2700448 2727314

Speaking on this occasion Sh. R. P. Upadhyaya, IPS, IGP/UT said that a land measuring 2500 Sq. Meters has been allotted in Sector-22 for this Women Police Station and it has also been assured that one more women police station shall be setup in Sector-52, Chandigarh in near future. And Five more police station i.e. in Sarangpur, Village Maloya, Mauli Jagran, IT Park & Sector-49 shall be notified shortly by Chandigarh Administration & land will also be allotted for these police stations after notification.

Speaking on this occasion, Sh. Vijay Kumar Dev, IAS, Adviser to Administrator, UT Chandigarh, congratulated police officials for establishing the Women Police Station. With the establishing of this Police Station, women of Chandigarh should feel more safer, comfortable and Secure.

Issued by Chandigarh police