

PRESS RELEASE
15.12.2015

The establishment of last Police Station i.e. Ind. Area was in the year 1995 and after the interlude of 20 years, getting five new police stations together for providing better services in UT, Chandigarh is a great achievement in itself. The five new police stations inaugurated today are PS-Sarangpur by Sh. Vijay Kumar Dev, IAS, Advisor to the Administrator, UT, Chandigarh, PS-Mauli Jagran by Sh. R. P Upadhyay, IPS, IGP/UT, PS-Maloya by Sh. Anurag Aggarwal, IAS, Home Secretary/UT, PS-49 by Sh. A.S. Cheema, IPS, DIGP/UT and by PS-IT Park by Sh. Sukhchain Singh Gill, IPS, SSP/UT, respectively. The establishment of new police stations was necessary as the density of population has been increased since the last 20 years.

IGP/UT addressed the local public at the opening ceremony of new police station at Mauli Jagran that there is much awaited requirement for the long time to establish new police station in Mauli jagran which has been fulfilled, whereas four more police stations inaugurated in the city for better policing. The extra force, vehicles and infrastructure has been provided to all the police stations for the smooth functioning.

Speaking on this occasion of inauguration of Police Station Sarangpur Shri Vijay Kumar Dev, IAS, Advisor to the Administrator, U.T. Chandigarh, congratulated police department for providing efficient police services to the residents of Chandigarh and also for establishing new police stations in UT, Chandigarh. In his address, he requested the general public to cooperate with the police and provide them information regarding any violation of law. He further emphasized the need of efficient policing in the city. Shri Anurag Aggarwal, IAS, Home Secretary, U.T., Chandigarh was also present on this occasion.

Issued by Chandigarh Police