

PRESS RELEASE
21.09.2015

1st India Reserve Battalion Chandigarh is situated in village Sarangpur, and presently there are 602 jawans including male & female of IRBn are residing in IRB Complex, Sarangpur.

On 21.09.2015, an Oral Health and Hygiene Awareness Camp was organized at IRB Complex, Sarangpur. Sh. R.P Upadhyay, Inspector General of Police, U.T., Chandigarh was the Chief Guest. Sh. A.S Cheema, Deputy Inspector General of Police, Sh. Sukhchain Singh Gill, Senior Superintendent of Police-UT, Sh. Ram Niwas Meena, Commandant-IRB, Ms. Urvija Goyal, SP-HQ, Sh. Anjitha Chepyala, DSP-IRB, Sh. Sanjay Sehrawat, DSP-IRB and other senior officers also attended the camp. Dr. Poonam assisted by dental staff from Dr. Harvansh Singh Judge Institute of Dental Sciences and Hospital, Sector-25, Punjab University, Chandigarh visited at IRB Complex and organized the dental camp.

During the camp, 235 Police officials were examined and a presentation was also given to all the officials on Oral Health and Hygiene.

Issued by Chandigarh Police