

PRESS NOTE

Today i.e. 08.02.2016, State Police Co-ordination Core Committee a unit of National Science Research Institute honoured Dr. Sukhchain Singh Gill, IPS, Senior Superintendent of Police, UT, Chandigarh at Police Headquarters with Outstanding Police Services Award for State Police. Northern Regional Director of National Science Research Institute, Sh. Krishna Miglani said the first duty of any social organization should be to honor good, honest & sincere officer for his outstanding work & duties.

Dr. Sukhchain Singh Gill who is currently serving as SSP/Chd was earlier posted as SSP/Bhatinda, Distt. Hoshiarpur, Punjab. He is known for promptness in police duty, conscious reform in the police system and for his tender & sweet disposition in public. He is always available in his office for general public to solve their problems and welcome their participation and suggestions via their opinion in the workspace.

National Science Research Institute along with his unit State Police Co-ordination core committee studied the activities of SSP/UT and found that he is among those police officers who assist in prestige of the common man and untiring enthusiastic behavior is part of their daily routine. Northern Regional Director of National Science Research Institute, Sh. Krishna Miglani said State Police Core Committee is conducting many programmes like traffic system improvement programme, Police Methodology Information camps and anti-drugs camps with help of State Police Headquarters in 19 district of Punjab and 294 districts of Uttaranchal Pradesh, Himachal Pradesh, Haryana and Rajasthan. He said Chandigarh Police is Hi-tech Police which is committed towards his motto 'we care for you' and connecting general public through web, facebook, Women & Senior Citizen Helpline, Universal Control Room, Dial No. 100, Whatsapp and traffic helpline Nos.

On this occasion, SSP/UT said it would be my great pleasure if I could resolve anybody's trouble and problem as a friend while discharging my duties. He appealed social service agencies and enlightened general public that Chandigarh Police is your Police; please participate to improve their continuous support.

Provincial Executive Committee of the institution honoured Dr. Sukhchain Singh Gill, SSP/Chandigarh with outstanding service award and presented shawl for his outstanding service to link Police department with society. In this award ceremony, Sh. Kapil Gupta, Project Chairman of Chandigarh and Ludhiana zone, Sh. Gagandeep Sikka, General Secretary Ludhiana, Sh. Rajiv Mahendru, Co-Secretary, Ms. Upinderjit Kaur, Municipal Councillor, Gunjan Nagpal, member of Women Executive committee, and other dignitaries with all teams were present on this occasion.

Issued by
Chandigarh Police