

Press Note
21.6.2016

Today on 21.06.2016 five days life skills training programme for Youth Empowerment has been concluded which was started from 15.06.2016 by Anti Human Trafficking Unit and Women Police Station with the collaboration of Youth Technical Training Society, Sector-17, Chandigarh. Inspector Reena yadav I/c AHTU welcomed Inspector Gurjeet Kaur SHO/Women Police Station and Ms. Sangeeta Jund, Project Director, Youth Technical Training Society. Inspector Gurjeet Kaur, SHO/Women Police Station aware the girls about Women and child issues, their rights and sexual harassment. In this camp Ms. Sangeeta Jund, Youth Technical Training Society, taught them about self awareness, communication, decision making etc.. Total 80 girls were participated in this camp. Mr. Gopal from State Legal Service Authority and Surbhi group gave vote of thanks.

Issued by
Chandigarh Police