19-year-old youth arrested for stealing four mobile phones

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
CHANDIGARH, FEBRUARY 5

A 19-YEAR-OLD youth was arrested for stealing four cellphones, belonging to a merchant navy captain, a retired DIG of Punjab Police, a school student and a man from Interior-Expo exhibition at Parade Ground, Sector 17, on Sunday night.

The thief has been identified as Akshay of Jharkhand. When he was told to make a call from one of the phones, an android, he was carrying, Akshay expressed his inability to operate it and also failed to unlock the phone screen. His frisking led to the recovery of three more android phones and once they were switched on, they began receiving calls, made by the owners.

It all began when merchant navy Captain Shantanu Sharma of Sector 68, Mohali, found that his cellphone was not in the pocket of his jacket when he, along with his family, was about to leave the exhibition.

Captain Sharma said, "When I realised that my cellphone was stolen, I contacted the organisers, who did not pay much heed to my complaint. So, I dialled 100 and a police team from the nearby police station arrived. I was recording my statement when a policeman received a call from one of the organisers that a suspicious man had been nabbed near the exit. And, the android, which was in that man's hand, was mine. Further frisking of the man, who revealed his identity as Akshay, led to the recovery of three more cellphones. Subsequently, when the three cellphones, were switched on, they began getting calls made by their claimants. A retired Punjab Police DIG also came and identified his stolen phone."

Deachen Choskit, a student of The British School, Sector 44, also identified her stolen cellphone.

Police sources said Akshay revealed that he, along with five friends, was currently residing in Ludhiana and they came to Chandigarh on Sunday morning and were scheduled to return at night. Inspector Maninder Singh, SHO of PS 17, said, "Akshay revealed that he first identified his targets, those carrying expensive cellphones. He always carries a polythene bag, which makes a sound, in his hands and after pickpocketing the cellphone, he switched off the gadgets. Though Akshay has revealed names of his associates, their identities are yet to be established. Akshay was remanded in judicial custody today." A case was registered at Sector 17 police station.

During the investigation, two CCTV cameras, installed at the exhibition, were not working. And, at the exit, there was no CCTV camera. Police sources said the organisers were told to put the cameras in functional mode. Sources said three complaints about the theft of cellphones from the exhibition ground were also received on February 3.
