

PRESS RELEASE
12.01.2014

The National Road Safety Week is observed in January every year all over the country to inculcate the culture of road safety amongst the citizens. This year it is being observed from 11th January to 17th January, 2014 and the theme of week is "When on the road, always say 'Pehle Aap' ".

Today, on the second day of this 25th National Road Safety Week, a Blood Donation Camp was organized at Chandigarh Traffic Park Sector-23, Chandigarh with the help of a team from PGI Chandigarh in which 107 units of blood were donated by the Police Personnels of Chandigarh Police. Besides this, a Free Medical Check-up Camp was also organized with the help of a team of Doctors from Max Hospital, Mohali. In this Medical Check-up Camp, basic health tests were conducted by the team of expert doctors and accordingly required consultations and prescriptions were given to the Police Personnels and civilians who were checked by this team of doctors. The aim of organizing this Blood Donation Camp is to encourage the general public to donate blood which is very precious for saving the lives of innocent people on happening of a road accident. On this occasion, Sh. Jai Bhagwan Sharma, DSP Traffic South and R&D, Insp. Traffic Jaswinder Singh, Insp. Amrao Singh and Traffic Marshals associated with Chandigarh Traffic Police were present.
