

Press Release
19-11-2014

Today, about 240 students along with their teaching staff visited at Police Head Quarters Sector-9 during the “Police Week” to know the practical working of Police Control Room, Chandigarh. Sh.R.P.Upadhyaya, IPS, Inspector General of Police, UT Chandigarh interacted with the students at PHQrs. Other senior police officers, DIG/UT, SSP/UT, ASP/ East and ASP/Central also briefed the students about police working and replied their queries.

57 Students of Carmel Convent School Sec-9, 46 student of GGMSS School Sector-18, 47 students of Moti Ram Arya Senior Sec. Model School Sec-27, 46 students of Gurukul Global School Manimajra and 44 students of Kendriya Vidyalaya School Sector-31 visited Police Control Room to see the practical working of GPS based dial-100 system. Sh. Roshan Lal, DSP/Communication briefed the student to about the step-wise working of Police Control Room on receiving the 100 number call. He motivated the students to frequently use 100 number while in distress or watching anybody in trouble. Students were also shown the Mobile Control Room/Workshop equipped with CCTV Cameras and emergency light etc. Students were allowed to operate the Wireless sets practically during the visit. Students were very excited to see the practical working of “Police Control Room”.

Issued by Chandigarh Police