

PRESS RELEASE
07.11.2013

Today, the opening ceremony of 14th All India Police Lawn Tennis Championship-2013 was held at CLTA, Sector-10, Chandigarh. Sh. Bhupinder Singh Hooda, Hon'ble Chief Minister, Haryana was the Chief Guest on this occasion and flagged off and declared games open of this Championship. Sh. R.P. Upadhyay, IPS, IGP Chandigarh welcomed Sh. Bhupinder Singh Hooda, Hon'ble Chief Minister of Haryana and presented the Memento. Sh. K.K. Sharma, IAS, Advisor/UT, Chandigarh, Sh. S.N Vashisth, IPS, DGP, Haryana, Sh. Naunihal Singh, IPS, SSP/UT, Chandigarh, Sh. R.S. Ghumman, IPS, SSP Operation & Training, Sh. Arun Kampani, IPS, SSP/Hqrs. UT, Chandigarh, Sh. Maneesh Chaudhry, IPS, SSP Traffic & Security and other Senior Officers were present at this function. Sh. Bhupinder Singh Hooda also released the "Souvenir" of Chandigarh Police at the function and honored Sh. Ashish Kapoor, DSP, Chandigarh, for winning Gold Medal in Men's Tennis Single in World Police & Fire Games-2013, held at Belfast, Ireland (UK). The stadium was full packed with 4000-5000 gathering. A cultural program was also organized.

The 14th All India Police Lawn Tennis Championship-2013 comprising Team Events, Open Singles, Open Doubles, Veteran Singles and Veteran Doubles. Total 14 teams comprising 95 participants from different States/UT i.e. Andhra Pradesh, Assam, Chandigarh, Goa, Gujarat, Himachal Pradesh, Jharkhand, Karnataka, Punjab, Uttar Pradesh, Central Para-Military Forces – ITBP, NSG, RPF, BSF, CRPF, SSB are participating in this Championship-2013. This Championship will be played up to 10th November 2013.

Chandigarh Police