

PRESS RELEASE

A two days Workshop on Investigation and Efficient Functioning of Police Stations was organized for Inspectors/newly posted SHOs, Sub Inspectors in Chandigarh Police Training Centre, Sector-26, Chandigarh under the guidance of Sh. Tajinder Singh Luthra, IPS, DG, UT, Chandigarh. A same workshop was organized on 24 & 25.03.2018 for different Police Officers which was inaugurated by Dr. O.P. Mishra, IPS, DIG, UT, Chandigarh. Today 26 Inspectors and 55 Sub Inspectors of Chandigarh Police have participated.

On the first day of workshop i.e. on 10.03.2018, Ms. Nilambari Jagadale, IPS , SSP/UT Chandigarh, delivered the lecture on the topic of knowledge about Police Station records, Sh. Rajinder Singh, District Attorney¹ delivered the lecture on Compliance of Court directions , Juvenile Justice Act and Amendments in Law in detail. Other GOs delivered lectures on Familiarization & Various schemes of Chandigarh Police & Manpower deployment in Police Stations, Prevention and detection of crime, Compliance of Court direct respectively.

Today, i.e. on 11.03.2018 lectures have delivered on different topics i.e. Crime and Criminal Tracking Network & Systems (CCTNS) and special emphasis were given on as it being a National Level Project by Sh. Shashank Anand, IPS, SSP/Security & Traffic. Other Police Officers spoke on the topics such as Cyber Crime and Investigation of Economic Offences, Investigation of Heinous Crime, Women safety, Monitoring of Criminals in Heinous Offences from Jail through dedicated teams.

The main objective to conduct this workshop is to enhance and refresh the knowledge of Inspectors/SHOs, I/C Police Posts and other investigating officer of Chandigarh Police for efficient functioning of Police Stations and proper implementation of law in the City Beautiful.

Issued by Chandigarh Police