

Court notices to 38 sureties

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

CHANDIGARH, APRIL 25

The UT police have taken an initiative to ensure that the accused in snatching and robbery cases regularly attend court dates, resultant-ly which the local court this year had fined two sureties and issued 38 notices to the sureties after the accused persons failed to appear in the court during hearings.

The police claimed that as a part of steps taken to control snatching and robbery incidents in the city, cops keep a record of the accused who don't appear in court hearings.

As per the police, the local court on January 24 and April 23 this year fined two sureties of Rs 7,000 and Rs 25,000 after

Steps taken to check snatchings, robberies

The police claimed that as a part of steps taken to check snatching and robbery incidents in the city, cops keep a record of the accused who don't appear in court hearings.

the accused failed to appear in the court hearings into two cases registered in 2016.

The police claimed that the courts have issued 38 notices to the sureties after the accused in different cases failed to appear in the court and 30 more notices to be issued to sureties are under consideration.

Moreover, the police have also arrested 32 proclaimed offenders and have got 48 non-bailable warrants issued this year.

UT Police start drive against POs, NBWs

Since January 1, Chandigarh Police have arrested 32 POs and 48 NBWs in snatching and robbery cases

CHANDIGARH: Tightening the noose around the accused, who got arrested in the snatching and robbery incidents, the Chandigarh Police have now started conducting an extensive drive to execute Non -Bailable Warrant (NBWs), arrest Proclaimed Offenders. The drive is initiated to ensure that the snatchers and robbers, will regularly attend the court dates during the trial.

Recently in tow of the FIR's registered by the Chandigarh Police JMIC's Geetanjali Goyal and Jaspreet Singh, have fined sureties for Rs7,000 and 25,000 respectively. DP counsel that Union of India

RTI information, there are sevaddicts. If so, what steps are

214 take part in Road Safety Week celebrations

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

CHANDIGARH, APRIL 25

The Chandigarh Police is celebrating the 29th Road Safety Week-2018, with the theme 'Sadak Suraksha - Jeevan Raksha', as part of which a painting competition and face painting competition on road safety was organised by the Chandigarh Traffic Police at Multipurpose Hall, Police Lines, Sector 26, on Wednesday.

In all, 214 students from 22 various government and private schools participated in the competition. The competitions were organised separately for junior and senior wing students.

Out of these students, Sai Vibhuti Chauhan of Carmel Convent School, Sector 9, won the I position (senior wing), Kritika Patyal of Moti Ram Arya

Students participate in a face-painting competition during the 29th National Road Safety Week celebrations at the Police Lines in Sector 26, Chandigarh, on Wednesday. TRIBUNE PHOTO: NITIN MITTAL

School, Sector 27, got the II position and Jaspreet Kaur of Government Model Senior Secondary School, Sector 23, won the III position.

Whereas in the junior wing, Gauri Sharma of Moti Ram Arya School, Sector 27, got the I position, Swati of Government Model Senior Secondary School, Sector 39, won the II position and Pooja Kumari of Government Model Senior Secondary School, Sector 39, got the III position.

In the face painting competition, Ajasvir of Carmel Convent School, Sector 9, got the I position, Aprajita of Bhavan Vidyalaya, Sector 27, won the II position and Bhavna of SD Public School, Sector 32, got the III position.

CHANDIGARH Tribune Thu, 26 April 2018
epaper.tribuneindia.com/c/28175749

FOR A SAFE DRIVE

Students paint their faces to spread awareness on road safety during an event organised by the traffic police in Sector 26, Chandigarh, on Wednesday.

KARUN SHARMA/HT