On June 16, 2016, Vijay Sharma's body was brought to the GMSH-16. It was stated that he had committed suicide by hanging at his residence in Sector 26. On the complaint of his wife Pooja, the police arrested both accused. As per the complaint, Pooja and Vijay were married eight years ago and had two children. On the fateful day, Vijay's relatives had come to their place and were to meet Pooja's father.

Vijay went to his room to change his clothes. When he did not return, Pooja called him but he did not respond. One of the relative's went to check on him and found him hanging. Pooja saw the suicide note in his phone later in the form of a draft message, along with the audio and video clips, which was handed over to the police. The two were thus arrested and found guilty by the court.

2 sentenced to 10-yr-jail for possessing 3 kg charas

CHANDIGARH, MAY 15

THE DISTRICT court of Chandigarh Tuesday sentenced two accused to 10-year imprisonment in a case related to NDPS (Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances) Act. The convicts were held by Narcotics Control Bureau (NCB) sleuths with 3.09 kilogramme of charas in 2016.

The convicts, Mausamdeen (28) and Dildar (20), were sentenced to imprisonment by the court of Additional District and Session Judge, Dr Ajit Attri. The court also imposed a fine of Rs 1 lakh each on the convicts.

As per the prosecution, the two convicts, both residents of Himachal Pradesh, were held by the NCB in October 2016 while they were possessing the contraband.

As per the FIR, the duo were held near a check post while they were carrying 3.09 kilogram charas by hiding it below vegetables in a pick-up truck. They were apprehended at the Sector 26/7 dividing road.

As per the NCB, the duo was involved in this kind of drug trade in the past as well and were supplying contraband in Chandigarh, Amritsar, Ludhiana and Hoshiarpur. They were booked under Sections 8, 20, 28, 29 and 60 of the NDPS Act.

During the trials, the defense counsel argued that they were falsely implicated and the contraband was planted. However, based on the evidences, the court held them guilty and sentenced them to 10-year imprisonment.
