

PRESS RELEASE

20.11.2014

Release of Chandigarh Police Documentary and Musical Evening

Chandigarh Police is observing 5th Chandigarh Police Week and today on this occasion, the “DOCUMENTARY ON CHANDIGARH POLICE” was released by Sh. K.K. Sharma, IAS, Advisor to Administrator Chandigarh (UT) at Moti Ram Arya Sr. Sec. School, Sector 27, Chandigarh. Finance Secretary, IGP/UT, DIG/UT, SSP/UT, SSP/S&T, Senior Citizens, Police Families and other Senior Officers from Administration and Police department were present in the function. Sh. R.P. Upadhyaya, IPS, IGP gave the introductory speech on documentary of Chandigarh Police.

The 'Documentary' contains a brief description of the traffic management system, community policing approach and high-tech gadgets adopted by the Chandigarh police in service of the city residents. Organization structure, friendly initiatives and services rendered by the Chandigarh police are the part of this documentary. Later part of the documentary contains videos of various people friendly initiatives and services rendered by the Chandigarh police. The documentary is of 14 minutes and 32 seconds short and touched every aspect of Chandigarh police functioning. Advisor to Administrator congratulated Chandigarh Police for celebrating 5th Chandigarh Police Week and also appraised the Chandigarh Police Documentary.

The function was followed by Musical Evening featuring well known sufi singer "Lakhwinder Singh Wadali" who kept the house in stitches with his with his sufi songs.

Issued by Chandigarh Police